THOUGHTS.

"For the success of our civilization what is needed is not brilliant ability, but unusual genius, but the qualities of plain work-a-day virtue possessed by the average man—the quality that makes out of him a good father, a good husband, and a good citizen. That is what we have to deal with in life first of all.—President Roosevelt.

Mr. D. and slush always follow a freeze up.

Don't let this damp weather soften your heart along with your tobacco, Mr. Farmer.

There is one thing we are glad to see getting up in the world, and that is the thermometer.

Our city fathers are doing the handsome thing by spreading ashes on the muddy places.

The government crop report, it turns out, over-estimated the corn crop for 1904 by 400,000,000 bushels.

The wheat crop isn't coming out of the freeze up in very good shape. It looks as if it were badly frost bitten.

A queer sight is that of Bryan and Roosevelt occupying the same bed. The question that puzzles a good many people is whose bed it is, Bryan's or Roosevelt's.

A Hungarian club in New York recently entertained President Roosevelt in royal style. Things have changed in the last fifty years. There were no Roosevelts in Louis Kossuth's time.

MR. WILLIAM KASEY, who had his car badly frost bitten last Monday week, was in his place on the jury last Monday, his car well and in good shape. He says Parliament did the work.

TOM LAWSON says the Standard Oil trust is doomed, that it will go down as fast as it went up. He stands ready, he says, to walk barefooted from Boston to Washington to help President Roosevelt manipulate the probe.

DON'T SHUT THE DOOR. Many a woman's nerves are wrecked and her temper flared by just this sort of carelessness on the part of men. It should be a man's religious duty to temper his ways to the peace and quiet of his home.

BROKEN—the backbone of winter. Now if the backbone of the tobacco trust would loosen up with the weather business would boom, the farmer would be happy and all hands would go round together. And such a happy time we all would have.

THE POLITICIANS don't like our ticket for sheriff. Just as we expected. A politician don't like anything when he is not in it. But the people like it and it seems to us they ought to have a say in the matter. It is a good, safe, clean ticket, just what the people want and should have. Why not name them and elect them?

THE ICE PLANT is a sure go for Cloverport, and we are glad of it, thanks to the enterprising citizen who put up their money to get it. Cloverport is slowly but surely coming to the front. With the ice plant other industries will follow. All we want to do is to keep hammering, keep pulling, keep cheerful and hopeful and we'll all get there in the end. There are no flies on Cloverport.

PROF. ANDREW DRISKELL has forty-four pupils enrolled in his normal school at Harned and has applications for several more. A primary department, in charge of Miss Aurey Ballman, has been established and has been a success from the start. Prof. Driskell is a man of energy and hard work and is doing a great work for the young men and women of this county. We are glad to see him succeeding in his work. May his normal at Harned continue to grow and prosper.

THAT MISSOURI farmer is our kind of a farmer, the farmer who stands by his home paper. But the News has no right to complain. The farmers of Breckenridge county have stood by it for nearly thirty years and are still doing it. And why shouldn't the News stand by them? The News has always been a friend to the farmer, is now and ever shall be as long as the writer has anything to stand on. If there was a time when the farmer needed standing by, encouraging and a stiff backbone, it is now. The fight of his life is on.

THE HEROES of this country are the men whose names seldom find a place in print. There is the track walker on our railroads, covering miles of track with the thermometer eight and ten below zero, scanning every foot of the way for our safety. And the engineer, who drives his engine, at a mile a minute, over ice-covered rails through snow and sleet and rain, for his train must arrive on time regardless of the weather. The man in the warm couch seldom thinks of the man at the throttle. It takes a brave man to run an engine, as little as we think of it. All honor to him.

QUARTERLY meeting services were held with the Irvington church last Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Hynes, the pastor, is loud in his praise of his membership and his official board, and, from his point of view, it is one of the best in the Louisville conference. His official board, he says, is a business board composed of business men who make it their business to see that the collection are all up promptly and settlement made in full at the end of every quarter, consequently the pastor comes out a happy man, strong and vigorous, and in shape to do good work for his church and people. Rev. Hynes is to be congratulated.

DON'T forget our guessing contest. It will be your last chance to strike a fortune at so little cost and effort. All you have to do is to guess the amount of money paid into the Treasury Department at Washington on the 27th day of March, 1905. Here's the way the receipts are running now:

We can name a man who ought to be sent to the legislature from this county. He is a good, clean, honest, conservative, everyday business man, not a politician, not a seeker after office, not a fanatic on any subject. He is a man of sterling worth, high character and standing, and a man among men, a man who would represent the rich and the poor, the farmer, the mechanic, the laborer, the banker, the merchant and the corporation; just such a man as every county needs in the legislature. Republican, Democrats and Independents could and would support him. But he wouldn't make a fight for the office. Don't suppose he would contribute a cent for his election, or make a speech, but we believe he's got patriotism enough in him to serve his county if called. That man is no other than W. H. Bowmer, of this town.

THE WORST WINTER
IN THE SOUTHWEST.W. C. Taul Writes About Weather
Conditions In Cattle Country
And Financial Improvements.W. C. Taul, formerly of this county, writes to the News from Waukegan, Ill.

"It has been a long time since I wrote anything for your columns. We are in the grip of one of the worst winters since I have lived in this southwestern country. It reminds me of the old Kentucky winters, except that we have had no mud here. The ground has not been free from snow since the holidays and we have had out very few dry days in that time. It has been an exceptional winter for cold and snow. Old stockmen, who have been on the range here for thirty years, say it is the worst they have ever witnessed in this part of the cattle country.

"Large herds, in a thing of the past. The country is being more and more turned into farming land, as it pays better than cattle raising. The indications now are that we will have a fine wheat crop another season, as the ground has had more moisture this winter than for several years. Wheat looks fine in this part of the country.

"The people in general are getting in a better financial condition every year. They are building new residences to take the place of their pioneer homes, such as dugouts and sod shanties, and are improving their homes generally. When I first came here I traveled for two days without seeing a house or even a human being. Today, on every quarter section of 160 acres, in this same country, you will find some one living.

"I am glad to see the farmers taking such a firm stand for their rights and the news also upholding for them. Without the farmer we can do nothing. The farmers should be the most independent people but we are not. For, from the farmer all other classes derive their bog and hominy, and it is high time the farmers should combine for better representation in government and a better price for what they produce."

It digests what you eat and gives the stomach a rest, enabling it to recuperate, take on new life and grow strong again. Kodol cures sour stomach, gas, bloating, heart palpitation and all digestive disorders. L. A. Soper, of Little Rock, Ky., writes us: "We feel that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure deserves all the commendation that can be given it, as it saved the life of our little girl when she was three years old. She is now six and we have kept it for her constantly, but of course she only takes it now when anything disagrees with her." Sold by All Druggists.

MURDER AT MILLWOOD.

Leitchfield, Ky., Feb. 16.—The body of Samuel Miller, a farmer sixty-five years old, was found at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the public road near Millwood, with his throat cut from ear to ear. It was near the home of Grayson Layman, one of the best-known men of the section, and this morning Layman gave himself up and is in the custody of the officers here. He says he and Miller quarreled in the road over family matters, and that in a struggle over a weapon which Layman drew and attempted to use, Miller was shot and killed. Beyond this he refuses to talk, declaring that what he did was only in self-defense. The men were neighbors and family troubles had kept them apart for some time. Yesterday they met on the road and the quarrel was renewed which resulted in Miller's death.

The Ways Of A Mother.

How the mother love crops out in unexpected places! It is a fact that the average woman would endure humiliation, physical and mental torture—anything—for her children. There are no limits.

The other day they had David Edward Richard, 19, in a Kansas City court. He was a good deal of a scoundrel. He had stolen. He had lied to the judge on the bench.

In the courtroom was a sweet, refined, good woman—his mother—and you can not imagine the torture that assailed her, the horror of the publicity, the terror that possessed her as she realized that the doors of the penitentiary were open to her son.

What did she do?

She knelt down in that courtroom and prayed God to soften the heart of her boy, to lead him into ways of righteousness, to make the Judge know how she had striven to bring him up honest, to forgive her son for his crime and to have mercy upon him and her.

Do you wonder that the courtroom was silent and that loungers who frequented the place found tears on their cheeks?

Do you wonder that a boy, with a great sob, threw himself on his mother's breast and cried: "Mother, God forgive me! I am a liar and a thief!"

The law does not take these things into account. The law itself does not know sympathy, or reckon with the hearts of mothers; but let's be glad that laws are man-made and man-enforced, and that penitence sometimes weighs more than the statutes.

David Edward Richard will have a chance to redeem himself; to prove that he can yet become a man.

As for the Mother—nothing you could say would make her any more an angel than she is—

FOR HER'S IS THE WAY OF MOST MOTHERS.

CAN'T CANVASS MUCH.

In March, April and May, Prof. W. R. Gray, of Brandenburg, who recently announced himself a candidate for State Senator, subject to the action of the Republican party, will have little time to do extensive canvassing in the interest of his nomination, as he will teach school during these months. He will teach at the Pleasant Grove school-house, in Meade county, beginning on Monday, March 6. The school will be for the benefit of teachers and those desiring to teach.

TOBACCO YIELDS WELL.

Versailles, Ky., Feb. 15.—W. L. Cannon, of near Midway, has just finished delivery to V. F. Zeigler, buyer for the American Tobacco Company, in this city, his crop of 3,775 pounds of tobacco, which he sold at an average of 11 cents per pound. This crop was produced on twenty-one acres of land, which is an average yield of 2,275 pounds per acre and an income per acre, for a single season, of $318.30—three times the estimated value of the land.

Meade County.

(Measenger.)

Allie Burch and Miss Margaret Stiff, of Mooleysville, were married at St. Theresa church last Wednesday.

Monday was the coldest day of the season in Brandenburg, the thermometer registering five degrees below zero at 8 o'clock, a.m.

The condition of the wheat crop is far more promising in this county at present than has been anticipated. The heavy snows and sleets have made a fine covering during the freezing weather, and farmers are enthusiastic over the outlook, hoping for a far greater yield than ever seen possible.

This has been a hard winter in some respects. Every day we hear somebody say that the winters now are colder than they were years ago. Of course that is an error. Why, when many of us were boys we had snows frequently from twelve to twenty-four inches deep on a dead level. It staid with us, too, for weeks at a time. You don't see things now. It isn't a matter of cold weather, after all—merely one of memory.

United States District Attorney R. D. Hill has filed suit in the United States District Court to enforce the forfeiture of the goods and chattels of the Brandenburg Distilling Company, the plant of which was seized by Deputy Collector W. L. Archer, of the Internal Revenue Department for the Fifth district. The officials are cited to appear in court to defend the company in proceedings on March 13.

A BANNER COUNTY.

Breckenridge is one of the thirty banner Sunday-school counties of the State. To be in the banner class a county must have the following requirements: First, the county and all districts organized—officers chosen; second, a complete statistical report; third, apportionment paid in full. In Breckenridge county there are thirty-four Sunday-schools, 218 teachers and officers, and 1,616 pupils with an average attendance of 121. The amounts of money paid by the county for the past five years is as follows: 1900, $15.75; 1901, $18.75; 1902, $55.63; 1903, $94.27; 1904, $86.85.

BRYAN NOT DEAD POLITICALLY YET.

Why The Star of Destiny Still Shines For Most Powerful And Popular Of Living Democrats.

(Detroit United States Daily) The star of destiny still shines for William Jennings Bryan. He is the all-powerful leader of the Democratic party today. He is in the glare of the limelight of publicity, and cast, gathered thousands where other would-be leaders cannot gather more. The Savannah News complains that instead of retiring to obscurity after his two Presidential defeats, "he bobs up in unexpected places, and on every possible occasion, whenever the Macon News reports: 'Mr. Bryan has been seen at the most popular living Democrat' in all the nation. 'All this gives the Atlanta Constitution an opportunity to say: 'Mr. Bryan retains his great popularity, not through the cheap methods of a power who understands the advertising tricks of the press agent, but because, more nearly than does any other living American citizen, he embodies in his personality and expressed convictions the American ideal of honest, fearless statesmanship. It matters not how far the magnetic Nebraska may fall short of this lofty ideal in his abilities and accomplishments, but he may have his failings and even his imperfections—he may not have risen to the full height of his opportunity—he is, nevertheless, a relic of almost a lost type of the great publicist and commoner so dear to the old American heart and still dear to Americans who venerate the statesmanship days of the republic. Mr. Bryan is acknowledged to have few peers as a bustling orator, and no man has a right to question the sincerity of his impassioned speech. Radical may be, but he is the radicalism of conviction, not the radicalism of the demagogue. Any manly man, whatever his opinions or prejudices, cannot but respect the constancy to principle that Mr. Bryan has ever evinced in debate and the dignity with which he has borne himself. Mr. Bryan possesses moral qualities that are all too rare.

"For the rest, Mr. Bryan stands for principles that millions of his fellow citizens cherish as their political tenets. The fact that those he represents in the fierce forum of ideas are at present on the minority does not lessen the respect due his leadership or the force of his individuality. That minority may be a shadow's band, small, but strong with the potentialities of ultimate victory. It may yet leave the whole lump of the American body politic.

"The Constitution sees no reason why any Democrat should disappear or be disparaged by Mr. Bryan. It may be easy to pick flaws in him, for who is completely exempt from criticism? But Mr. Bryan, in the abstract, is monumental. He fills a large niche in contemporary history.

"And, politically, he is not dead yet."

SHOWS TRUE GRIT.

Such expressions as those included in the two paragraphs below show what true grit exists among the farmers. Such expressions may be found in

FROM HEAD TO FOOT

You feel the good that's done by Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cleanses, regulates and invigorates stomach, liver and bowels and so purifies the blood. And through the blood, it cleanses, repairs, and invigorates the whole system. In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, or from other exhausting diseases, nothing can equal it as an invigorating, restorative tonic to build up weakened flesh and strength. It runs every organ into natural action, promotes all the bodily functions, and restores health and vigor.

For every disease that comes from foul or weak stomach, a torpid liver, or impure blood, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, and the most stubborn constipation, or Scap, or Scrofulous affections, the "Discovery" is a sovereign remedy. It has been hypnotized, whined, or over-persuaded into accepting a substitute only that some selfish medicine seller may make a greater profit on the inferior article. The "Discovery" has a great record of nearly forty years with thousands of cures behind it.

Dear Sir: Several years ago my blood became impure and I became run down in health. I had a great deal of trouble and was practically unfitted for work. Suffered from indigestion, biliousness, and was in bad shape. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, however, did me good. The medicine built up my system and restored me to a normal state. I can speak most highly also of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," which has been my family for years in cases of female troubles. I am, Sir, Very Respectfully, Yours, 140 Goodrich Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Chief Consulting Physician in the "Lancet" and "The Medical Institute," Buffalo, N. Y. Paper-bound, price 21 one-cent stamps for mailing only; or, cloth-bound, price 41 one-cent stamps. Address the Author, as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets Cure Constipation.

Suffering Will Not Help Your Disease, But Will Weaken Your Nerves.

Folk who think it is better to bear pain than soothe it are wrong. Old-fashioned doctors used to say it was better, because they had nothing with which to ease pain but dangerous, heart-paralyzing drugs.

But now, that a safe remedy has been found, Dr. Wm. J. Stader's Pills it is wrong to suffer, for nothing can be gained but weakened nerves.

A safe rule to remember is: When in pain, take an Anti-Pain Pill. This will soothe your quivering nerves. Dr. Stader's Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain by restoring the natural secretions, in which they differ from opium and similar narcotic drugs, which relieve pain by checking the action of the glands. They are pure and harmless, and are the best medical treatment for the cure of Headache, Neuralgia, Backache, Rheumatism, Dizziness, Toothache, Stomachache, Menstrual (Monthly) Pain, etc. Also nerve irritations like Sea-Sickness, Car-Sickness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, etc.

Pleasant to take, quick in results. "I have used Dr. Stader's Anti-Pain Pills for a number of years and have received the best results. I hear of people who have used them, and they are successful."—REV. R. W. WILSON, D. D., Yale Div. in. Sold by druggists at 25c. Money back if first box does not help. Never sold in bulk.

FREE Write to us for Free Trial Package of Dr. Stader's Anti-Pain Pills. Also Symptom Book. Our Specialist will diagnose your case, tell you what is wrong and how to right it. Write to: DR. W. J. STADER, 140 GOODRICH ST., BUFFALO, N. Y.

Other papers besides the Hancock Clarion, whose Floral correspondent, a farmer, no doubt, says: "Some of our farmers say they are living hard and that their families are being deprived of many things they need, but they are willing to suffer all these deprivations for a while in order to secure an equitable price for their tobacco."

"It has been reported this week that the tobacco buyers have said they were not going to buy any tobacco this year. That's all right if they can do without our tobacco we can do without their money, and we will not raise any tobacco this year, but keep the old crop and sell to them next year for twenty dollars instead of eight."

Grave Trouble Foreseen. It needs little enlightenment to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had nervousness of the liver and stomach, my head was ached, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me. Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by Short & Haynes, Druggist at 502 a bottle."

TO OPEN WRONG MAIL.

The authorities at Washington have fixed a penalty of a two hundred dollar fine on any person taking out of the post office mail other than their own. All postmasters are liable to make mistakes and get the mail in the wrong boxes, and the law says that people must examine their mail before leaving the office, and should they receive a piece which is not addressed to them, it must be returned at once. That it is the fault of the postmaster makes no difference. This law includes newspapers as well as first-class mail. There is a class of curious people every where, and they are, as a rule, contemptibly curious about letters and other mail matter which they chance to get hold of. They will open all letters coming in their possession, and they will know how full well they often do belong to them. They will, after reading the letters, write on the envelope "opened by mistake," and without signing their name drop it back in the post office box at night or during the next morning.

Read This class of curious individuals is warned to be careful in the future if they open hereafter mail which does not belong to them they must sign their name and state why they opened the same, whether by accident or design.

ELOPE TO CANNELTON.

Mr. Lon Mattingly and Miss Daisy Pate, runaways from Hardinsburg, Ky., drove through the cold weather Tuesday from that "borg" to Clowreport, thence to Hawesville by train, and crossed to this city on the ice, bent on matrimony.

Securing the necessary papers from Clerk Lindeman they proceeded to the Cottage Hotel.

Squire Robinson was sent for and in his usual clever style made them man and wife. They ate dinner and started for home early in the afternoon. The bride slipped away from school on Monday joining her affianced on the road near.—Cannelton Telephone.

OATS-STADER.

Elizabethtown, Ky., Feb. 16.—G. L. Oaks, a prominent merchant of Vine Grove, and Miss Ite Stader, the attractive daughter of Mr. J. C. Stader, of the same town, were married there by the Rev. B. F. Eagan, of Hodgenville.

Miss Stader is a sister of H. L. Stader, of this city, who, with Mrs. Stader, attended the wedding.

REMEMBER THE MAINE.

Havana, Feb. 15.—Memorial services were held today for the victims of the Maine disaster, which occurred February 15, 1898. In further observance of the anniversary an American flag and a number of wreaths were placed on the wreck.

THE YEAR 1905.

Had you noticed any peculiarity of the year 1905? It began and ends on Sunday. Sunday was the first day of the week, month and year. Five months have five Sundays each. The first and last months have five Sundays each, giving us fifty-three Sundays in the year. Easter falls upon the fourth Sunday of April.

TOBACCO TRUST, TOO.

At last August W. Machen was formerly at the head of the rural free delivery system, is in the penitentiary having been convicted of postal frauds. The suggestion of President Roosevelt that the heads of the best trust in the world be put in the penitentiary is a good one. And the moving spirit in the tobacco trust should be sent along to keep them company.—Morganfield Sun.

MUCH ENCOURAGED.

The Christian people of Louisville are much encouraged by the success of the first week of the great revival in this city. During one day eighteen simultaneous meetings were held by evangelists and three mass meetings, the total attendance being 20,000 and the conversions numbering 330.

Starting Hot Fire.

People the world over were horrified on the evening of the burning of a Chicago theater in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives. Yet more than five times this number or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, and scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have ward off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, not especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, of a severe cold, and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia." W. D. Wilcox, Logan, New York. Sold by Short & Haynes.

CENTENNIAL NOTES.

A company of marines from the United States navy will give daily drills and maintain a model camp at the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

The gigantic statue of Vulcan in iron, which was exhibited at the World's Fair by Birmingham, Ala., will hold a prominent place on the grounds at the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

Deserved Popularity.

These Famous Little Pills are mild, pleasant and harmless, but effective and sure. Their universal use for many years is a strong guarantee of their popularity and effectiveness. TALKS WITH OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

Strive always for accuracy and scorn a task.

Keep your personal likes and dislikes out of your copy.

Write each separate item in a paragraph, as each of these rules is followed. Do not say Rev. John Smith or Dr. Jones, but say Rev. John Smith or Dr. Jones.

Cram as much meaning as possible into the fewest words compatible with clearness.

Facts, not words, are wanted. People read newspapers not to pass away time, but to learn what is going on in the world.

Write across the short way of the paper, not across the long way, and on but one side of the paper. It is handier for the printers.

Birthday parties, wedding anniversaries and social gatherings generally are always worth more or less space, according to their importance.

Avoid throwing bonnets when there is no occasion for them, for adulterated and indiscriminate "taffy" is abominable and disgusting, but at the same time there are many pleasant things which can be properly and well said, and which are not said. The paper desires to please the people.

Avoid trivial items, "such as near neighborhood visiting, or trips to town, or trips, unless there is something special in connection. Remember that the question is not what shall be printed, but what shall be left out on account of crowded columns. Do not put in anything merely to fill up.

In telling of marriages give names of the contracting parties, their parents (if they reside in the community or in the near country), the time and place of the wedding, name of the officiating minister, where the honeymoon will be spent if a trip is taken, where the happy couple will live and other interesting details known.

In cases of deaths tell name, age, time and cause of death, time and place of funeral service and burial, with name of officiating minister in all cases. In cases of children give names of parents. In cases of persons nearly grown or grown additional fact should be given, depending upon the importance of the person or family in the community. Additional facts, such as place of birth, names of parents, when, where and to whom married, how many surviving relatives and how long residing in the community, are usually in order. Ordinary poetry is not wanted. If good, it usually is original. If original, it usually is not good.

POSITION IN SLEEP.

According to Dr. Flanner, of Berlin, the most effective position of sleep for obviating intellectual rest is to keep the head low and the feet slightly elevated. Failing this, the body should, at any rate, be horizontal, so as to irrigate the brain well. The habit of sleeping with head low and feet high is, according to the doctor, a remedy for brain troubles and some internal maladies. It can be adopted gradually.
